

Academic Dermatologist

The Department of Medicine, Division of Dermatology at Queen's University is seeking a qualified Dermatologist. The Division of Dermatology at Queen's University provides clinical care to a large catchment area and has excellent support from the Cancer Centre of Southeastern Ontario as well as the Department of Pathology and Molecular Medicine. The Division holds clinics at the Cancer Centre, Hotel Dieu Hospital and also features a state-of-the-art newly-constructed Mohs suite at Hotel Dieu.

In addition to providing exemplary clinical service, the successful applicant will set the direction of the Division and will oversee the activities and contributions of the Division of Dermatology in the areas of clinical excellence, research initiatives and outstanding teaching. The incumbent will be responsible for the regional growth of the Dermatology program, providing advocacy and leadership for new initiatives such as the development of a training program, and foster collaborative relationships with university and hospital leadership. The successful applicant must demonstrate evidence of strong leadership and communication skills and he/she would be expected to have experience in a leadership role. Preference will be given to applicants eligible for appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor.

Members of the Department of Medicine enjoy a competitive compensation package, including a generous benefit plan. Academic rank will be commensurate with experience.

Candidates must be eligible for licensure by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Preference will be given to those who either hold or are eligible for certification in Dermatology by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

One of Canada's leading universities, Queen's has a reputation for academic excellence, research, and a diverse and vibrant learning environment. Kingston is situated in the heart of historic Southeastern Ontario on the shores of beautiful Lake Ontario, midpoint between Montreal and Toronto.

Applications are to include a letter summarizing expertise, qualifications and accomplishments relevant to the position together with a curriculum vitae, a brief bio and the names and full contact information of three referees. To comply with Federal laws, the university is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada; OR, I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete. Complete applications are to be directed to: Dr. S.L. Archer, Professor and Head, Department of Medicine, c/o Jennifer Andersen, Etherington Hall, 94 Stuart Street, Kingston, Ontario K7L 3N6. Email: jennifer.andersen@queensu.ca.

Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.

Queen's is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are invited to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact: Mrs. Jennifer Andersen email: jennifer.andersen@queensu.ca